To the Parents of Middle School Students,

"Take Our Children to Work Day" will be observed on Thursday, April 26, 2018. The New Jersey State Department of Education has chosen this day to allow parents to take their sons and daughters to work in order to promote career education.

For attendance purposes, students who participate in "Take Our Children to Work Day" will not be marked absent. This day will be entered as a field trip upon completion of the bottom portion of this permission form. This form must be submitted no later than Tuesday, April 24th.

Any student absent on April 26th who has not submitted the completed portion of this form by the April 24th due date will be marked as an unexcused absence for this day. Due to the large volume of participation, no telephone calls/messages can be accepted for the purpose of reporting students out of school for "Take Our Children to Work Day".

Please submit the following information if your student will be participating in "Take Our Children to Work Day".
